Privilege Pay Program: It is not a line of credit and does not constitute an actual or implied agreement between the Credit Union and any account owner or authorized signer. This Program for consumer checking accounts will be limited to a maximum of $700 overdraft (negative) balance for eligible accounts. Transaction types that are eligible for the Program include and are limited to: ACH transactions, Draft and On-U's checks at the teller counter. You must bring your account balance to a positive balance within every fourteen (14) day period, not be in default on any loan or other obligation to the Credit Union and the account cannot be subject to any legal or administrative order or levy. The Credit Union is not obligated to pay any items presented for payment if your account does not contain sufficient available funds. Any discretionary payment as part of the Program does not obligate the Credit Union to pay any additional non-sufficient fund check or item. The Program is a service and not a right or obligation and the Credit Union in its sole and absolute discretion can cease paying overdrafts at any time without prior notice of the reason or cause.
